KUWAIT CITY, Nov 19: Al Ahli Bank of Kuwait (ABK) is celebrating World Diabetes Day by inviting its customers to join a Regional World Diabetes Day fun run on Saturday, November 24th.

The second panel, “Art, an ideal for sale?” took a look into how art and culture are used to address social issues such as child labor, that engaged 103 countries.

The second panel, “Art, an ideal for sale?” took a look into how art and culture are used to address social issues such as child labor, that engaged 103 countries.

Karam urged the young in Kuwait to stand up and be the change they want to see in the world. He shared that the panel discussion was meant to inspire and invigorate attendees on engaging in the promotion of their ideas and aspirations globally. He also expressed the need for a more diverse representation of the Arab world. “Karam urged the young in Kuwait to stand up and be the change they want to see in the world.”

Karam also delivered a speech to the audience on the importance of dialogue. He shared that the panel discussion was meant to inspire and invigorate attendees on engaging in the promotion of their ideas and aspirations globally. He also expressed the need for a more diverse representation of the Arab world.

Karam also delivered a speech to the audience on the importance of dialogue. He shared that the panel discussion was meant to inspire and invigorate attendees on engaging in the promotion of their ideas and aspirations globally. He also expressed the need for a more diverse representation of the Arab world.

Karam also delivered a speech to the audience on the importance of dialogue. He shared that the panel discussion was meant to inspire and invigorate attendees on engaging in the promotion of their ideas and aspirations globally. He also expressed the need for a more diverse representation of the Arab world.

Karam also delivered a speech to the audience on the importance of dialogue. He shared that the panel discussion was meant to inspire and invigorate attendees on engaging in the promotion of their ideas and aspirations globally. He also expressed the need for a more diverse representation of the Arab world.

Karam also delivered a speech to the audience on the importance of dialogue. He shared that the panel discussion was meant to inspire and invigorate attendees on engaging in the promotion of their ideas and aspirations globally. He also expressed the need for a more diverse representation of the Arab world.

Karam also delivered a speech to the audience on the importance of dialogue. He shared that the panel discussion was meant to inspire and invigorate attendees on engaging in the promotion of their ideas and aspirations globally. He also expressed the need for a more diverse representation of the Arab world.