Judging Committee for “Takreem” Awards Selects 2013 Winners

2013/05/31

The judging committee for the “Takreem” Arab Achievement Awards recently took place in Paris, France ahead of the awards ceremony later this year. Her Excellency the Minister of Culture Shaikh Mai bint Mohammad Al Khalifa attended the meeting in her role as member of the committee.

The judging committee, comprised of distinguished leaders from the Arab world and beyond, thoroughly reviewed each award candidate's achievements in their respective fields and selected the winners in each category. This year, the awards categories include: Philanthropy and Charitable Services, Arab Woman of the Year, Exceptional International Contribution to Arab Society, Innovation in Education, Young Entrepreneur, Environmental Development and Sustainability, Scientific and Technological Achievement, Cultural Excellence, and Outstanding Corporate Leadership.

Bahrain hosted the previous edition of the awards, held under the patronage of Her Royal Highness Princess Sabeeka bint Ebrahim Al Khalifa. The event was attended by the “Takreem” Awards' founder Ricardo Karam and a number of prominent Arab and international leaders.

The “Takreem” Arab Achievement Awards is an annual event which aims to recognize outstanding accomplishments of Arabs in different fields and domains, and inspire Arab youth to play an active role in entrepreneurship and innovation.
