Renault-Nissan Alliance and the Takreem Arab Achievement Awards

Alliance is the presenting sponsor of the first Arab Woman of the Year Award

BEIRUT, Lebanon – the Renault-Nissan Alliance is a strategic partner of the inaugural Takreem Arab Achievement Awards, presented last night at a ceremony in Beirut, Lebanon.

Created by Lebanese journalist and entrepreneur, Ricardo Karam, the Takreem Awards are designed to recognize the achievement of Arabs across business, culture, politics, science and the arts. The Renault-Nissan Alliance is involved in supporting this initiative in several ways:

1. As a strategic partner and sponsor
2. As the presenting sponsor of the category “Arab Woman of the Year”
3. Carlos Ghosn, Chairman and CEO, Renault-Nissan Alliance is serving as one of four senior jury members

The winner of the Arab Woman of the Year award is renowned journalist and author, Nahida Nakad. Mrs. Nakad was recognized for her contributions to journalism, in particular foreign affairs reporting. The award was presented on behalf of the Alliance by Mouna Sepehri, Director, Renault-Nissan Alliance.

Mouna Sepehri said: “The Renault-Nissan Alliance relies on the contributions of talented women and men around the world to create value for all our stakeholders.”

“This belief is also the reason why we are honored to sponsor the recognition that will be awarded to the Arab Woman of the Year. We are proud to celebrate a female leader who is creating meaningful value in the Arab world and beyond.”
